A warm welcome is assured at the 2009 Top 100 winner. Owner Keith Betton or one of the wardens will help you unhitch and take your van to your pitch for you.

You can drive your car to your pitch to unload, but from then on cars are left in a car park at the bottom of the site. As well as creating more space around the pitches, this means you won't disturb or be disturbed by other guests closing car doors or starting up.

All of the pitches are fully serviced hardstandings set among trees and hedges. Instead of a washblock, there are numerous small washrooms. Each houses a toilet, shower and basin, and all are heated. Dishwashing sinks and a launderette are also provided.

There are lots of little touches that make it special. The information room has a computer with free internet access and printing. There is a library and free maps for local walks. Just outside reception there is a herb garden that all guests can use.

You'll be spoilt when it comes to local activities as well. Stay close by and go fishing at Chew Valley Lake. Or spend a day exploring the historic cities of Bath or Bristol, both of which are within easy driving distance.

"I enjoyed the peace and quiet on this site. The grounds are beautifully kept and the facilities were always clean. The site is close to Bath and Bristol, but is set in wonderful countryside."
