Detail, details. There are plenty of them at this privately owned site (it's also an affiliated site in the Caravan Club's 200-strong network). For example, there are free herbs in season and occasional offers of freshly caught fish from the nearby Chew Valley Lake. There's also free internet access via the computer in the information room.

Bath Chew Valley was our Overall Winner in 2009, but that's not to say standards have slipped in any way - it is, after all, the Best Adults-only Winner again.

The individual washrooms - each complete with shower, toilet and basin - earned much praise, as did the garden theme of the site layout, with its flowers, grassy areas and seating.

All the pitches are flat, hardstanding and fully serviced. Pitch space is generous enough, but you have to leave cars in the car park to optimise room. Pets are welcome, with a short dog walk on site.

Leaving Bath Chew Valley is the only thing that's likely to be a problem - literally. You need to be a bit careful exiting onto the one-way country road.

“ We were impressed with the layout of the site, and the toilet blocks were excellent” Mr D Faulkner
